

Educational Services Éducatifs

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

BETTER INTERVENTIONS THROUGH LEARNING

WHY?

- This training offers professionals that accompany people living with a neurocognitive disorder and their families, a professional and human centered intervention.
- To develop skills that will allow you to be adequately equipped to support and intervene with this population.

FOR WHO?

- Social workers, care attendants, licensed practical nurses, nursing assistants, health and social service assistants, or other community workers.
- Staff members who work in a private residence, a long term care facility, an intermediate resource, or a family-type resource.

MODULE 1

Understanding Alzheimer's disease to better intervene

MODULE 2

The person-centered approach

MODULE 3

Communication to build trust

MODULE 4

Intervening when there are Responsive Behaviours

This training is recognized by the OIIAQ association as an education activity, which meets the standards required for continuing education training hours training for licenced practical nurses (auxiliary nurses, nursing assistants) in Quebec.

PRICE

$540 for the 4 modules, including the participant's guide

LOCATION

4505 Notre-Dame Street West, Montreal

LANGUAGE

French or English

CONTACT US

 education@alzheimermontreal.ca

 514 369-0800